Articles

Vollebregt, Eric, E-Hubs, Syndication and Competition Concerns 437 443

How does E.C. competition law apply to co-operation and joint venture-sin the B2B field? Although the first decisions in the field are being taken,
"old economy" competition law principles provide useful guidance. Critical to the competition law assessment is the B2B marketplace's bias.

Heimler, Alberto, Relationship between the Antitrust Authority and Sectoral Regulators: The Italian Experience 444 447

The article explores the interaction/co-operation between regulators and competition authorities in the application of the Competition Act in Italy.
It examines the roles allocated to the general competition authority and sectoral regulatory bodies, and draws conclusions regarding the necessity for interaction.

Odriozola, Miguel, Spain Reforms Merger Control 448 451

The article describes Spain's June 2000 merger control reform, which intrduces suspensive effects of notifications and lowers the maximum duration of investigations to four months. The article also discusses an unprecedented new rule on minority participations.
